

Stop flushing money down the telephone.

The way to ensure real business results for your IVR is clear: get a guarantee, in writing.

TuVox guarantees that our IVR solution will beat the performance of your current IVR solution, or you will get to use ours free until it does.

How can we do this? Experience. We've done it many times, often taking on challenges that our competition has avoided.

And we know you'll be satisfied with the results:
IVR performance • caller satisfaction • ownership experience

Why choose TuVox? You get:

- A recognized leader in speech IVR applications and innovative application technology.
- A partner who is big enough to handle the largest applications and small enough to provide you with focused, personalized attention.
- Access to leading edge TuVox On Demand technology, including a portal featuring powerful tuning analytics and real-time updates.
- Stand-out application design and implementation by the award-winning TuVox Design Center team.

The TuVox Guaranteed Success Program. Available hosted or on your premise: you choose.
